SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Jeffory Shook

The Placer County Sheriff's Department is actively seeking two men who are suspected of burglarizing homes throughout Placer County. Both are considered armed and dangerous.

On Easter Sunday, a stolen trailer was found on Clipper Gap Road, near the railroad tracks, that was filled with items taken from several local residential burglaries. The two suspects, Mark Freeman Zachary and Jeffory Shook, fled prior to the deputies' arrival. Through investigation, it was learned that both suspects are using all-terrain, off-road vehicles to drive up and down the tracks and look for homes to burglarize.

Mark F. Zachary

Zachary, 37, and Shook, 31, are also involved in stealing dozens of cars in Placer County. They are known to frequent the Auburn and Lincoln areas.

Placer County Crime Stoppers is offering cash rewards for tips leading to the arrests of Zachary and Shook. Call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-923-8191 to report any information and all calls are anonymous. Citizens may also call Detective Jim Hudson at (530) 889-7855 with information.
